

CONTENTS

Winds, Flooding, and Landslides

Heavy rain, flooding, landslides, and typhoons	2
Flooding	3
Landslides	4
Typhoons	6
Gathering disaster information	7
How to obtain disaster information	8
Assessing disaster information and determining the best course of action	10
Choosing to evacuate	12
Key considerations when evacuating	14
Preparing for flooding with water sacks and water stops	15

Earthquakes

When an earthquake occurs	16
Earthquake early warnings and shaking during an earthquake	17
Nankai trough megathrust earthquakes	18
Local earthquakes in the Ikoma fault zone	19
Map of active faults in Hirakata City (Ikoma fault zone)	20
Conducting a safety inspection of your home	21
Safety measures at home	24
Preparing for a fire at home and how to put out a fire	25
In the event of an earthquake	26

Daily preparations

Things to take with you in an emergency and related supplies	28
Key infrastructure	29
Opening of shelters	30
Life at a shelter	31
Shelter-in-place recommendations	32

General information

Disaster readiness in your area	33
Helping others in a disaster and offering first aid	34
How to check on the safety of others	35
Shelters in Hirakata City	36
Traffic restrictions in the event of a disaster: Emergency Traffic Route	38

Hazard maps

Using hazard maps	40
Types of hazard maps	41
Explanation of hazard maps	42
Hirakata City index map	44
Hazard maps	45
Flood durations	116

Appendix

Disaster recovery / Storm drain facilities in Hirakata City	119
Creating a disaster readiness timeline	120