

Tenmajo and gougura in 1861

There used to be tenmajo and gougura in this vicinity. Tenmajo is a station for changing runners and horses, which is one of post towns' roles. Gougura is a warehouse for temporarily storing nengumai (annual tribute rice) before payment to the government.

Source: Hirakata City Board of Education